HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Porter County.

Whereas, It is the constitutional right of all citizens to participate in the political process;

Whereas, Each election day, the citizens of the United States have a chance to shape the future of their state and their communities by voting; unfortunately, too many citizens fail to exercise their right to vote;

Whereas, The voters of Porter County take very seriously their constitutional right to participate in the political process and their duty to voice their opinion in the democratic process by voting;

Whereas, With a voter turnout of 74%, the citizens of Porter County registered the highest voter turnout in the 2004 election, far exceeding the national average of 58%;

Whereas, Porter County is blessed with dedicated people like Leon West, Democratic Party Chairman; Keith Hall, Republican Party Chairman; Jane Pecor; and Helen Dame; all of whom spend countless hours ensuring that all voters are able to cast their vote; and

Whereas, The voters of Porter County should be proud of the fact that their county had the highest voter turnout in the 2004 election; all citizens of the nation should follow the lead of these patriotic Hoosiers: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- 1 SECTION 1. The members of the Indiana General Assembly
2 congratulate the people of Porter County on the excellent turnout in the 3 2004 election and express gratitude for their devotion to their civic 4 duty.
5 SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of
6 Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Porter County 7 officials.
